Origin/Background: An African American female mutant from Houston Texas, her power activated during a car crash.

Personality/Character Traits: Strong willed, doesn't like to play second fiddle. Straight forward and speaks her mind. Her body looks no different when in her non-corporeal "Light Form" – all team members know her watch phrase 'Light's On' to tell them she is in her light form, likewise her phrase 'Light's Out' warns teammates she about to unleash her blinding flash attack so cover their eyes or looks away.
